

Elective courses in English (Winter-term of 2008/09)

For elective courses with limited number of participants a deposit of EUR 300,- is required to ensure attendance. It will be refunded if the course was attended and the exam attempted. Credits are granted only after the successful exam.

title	for students after *	hours/credits	course organiser	remark
General Mycology		30h, 4 credits	Prof. J. Vetter	17 th Sept. 16.15, Rott.u.50., I/6, student@univet.hu
Physiological basis of cardiology	2 nd semester	15h, 3 credits	Prof. L.V. Frenyó	szajbertne.nagy.krisztina@aotk.szie.hu
Zoo and wild animal's disease	5 th semester	15h, 3 credits	Dr. J. Gál	limited number of participants., student@univet.hu
Hot topics in human nutrition	final exam Nutrition	15h, 3 credits	Prof. S. Fekete
Assisted reproduction techniques in animals	6 th semester	30h, 6 credits	Prof. L. Solti
Operation techniques. Manual practice on canine cadavers / bones	6 th semester	5 + 10h, 6 credits	Dr. F. Szalay	limited number of participants
Diagnostics of infectious diseases	final in Microbiology	15h pract, 6 credits	Dr. T. Bakonyi and Dr. L. Makrai	limited number of participants
Clinical demonstrations	8 th semester	3x5h, 9 credits	Dr. Á. Sterczler	limited number of participants
Small animal ultrasonography	8 th semester	20h, 6 credits	Dr. F. Manczur
Diagnostic imaging in small animals	8 th semester	20h, 6 credits	Dr. A. Arany-Tóth

*

All courses provided have a prerequisite for participation. It is either an exam passed previously or a certain semester completed. Students in higher classes are also welcome to attend courses offered for students in lower classes.