

State Veterinary Medicine

Lectures:

1. State administration and law of labour
 - Basic knowledge in law, decision making processes
 - Executive power of the state
 - The structure of state administration
 - General principles of the state administrative procedures
 - Breaking of law and penalty
 - Tasks of the councils in the field of animal health
 - Responsibility and labour relations of the civil servant
 - Protection of data
 - Structure of the State Veterinary Service (definitions, aims, tasks)
 - Methods and legal means of the State Veterinary Service
 - Organizing veterinary actions
2. Regulations of the prevention of infectious diseases
 - Epidemic and food hygiene requirements of small and large-scale animal plants
 - Animal identification systems
 - Regulations of the international animal trade; export requirements
 - Epidemic and animal welfare requirements of the Hungarian animal transport
 - Regulations of nutrition and grazing
 - Epidemic, public health and environmental regulations of the disposal of carcasses and animal waste
 - Disinfection
3. General regulations of the control of infectious diseases (notification, epidemic measures, state compensation)
 - The control of the production, trade and application of veterinary drugs
 - Laboratories, laboratory experiments; international accreditation
4. Regulations (in details) of the control of certain notifiable and other important infectious diseases

Year: 5

Term (semester): 9, 10

Lectures: 75h

Credits: -

Examination: state examination

Teaching staff: László Visnyei, Csaba Csintalan, Gábor Horváth